

Please leave the airways alone. I like having local traffic and weather available on my XM radio. I don't feel the FCC has any right to limit what is available to me over the airways that I pay for through my subscription. I fail to see why NAB should be allowed to limit their competition.